

Date: 05.07.2019

Angola is fast emerging as a travel destination of astonishing diversity and interest. Let Oscar Scafidi guide you around this unique country.

- Discover Angola's spectacular national parks and forest reserves – home to a wealth of wildlife including monkeys, chimpanzees and gorillas.
- Experience city life in the sophisticated bars and nightclubs of capital Luanda.
- Grab your board and surf along Angola's coast – including the longest left-hand waves in the world at Cabo Ledo.

Oscar Scafidi had this to say about why now is the time to visit Angola: "Angola is keen to regain lost time and things are changing incredibly fast. In March 2018 they even introduced a new e-visa system that allows most nationalities to collect a tourist visa upon arrival. It's been a real pleasure updating the book and recording the many positive changes that are happening. Travellers shouldn't waste another minute if they're keen to see its raw beauty before the number of tourists increases dramatically!"

To request a review copy or arrange an interview, Q&A or talk with Oscar, please contact: marketing@bradtguides.com. Competition giveaways and reader discount codes are also available for this title.

Angola by Oscar Scafidi

Published by Bradt Travel Guides, 5 July 2019

9781784770242, £18.99

About the author

Oscar Scafidi is originally from the UK and Italy and spent five years living and working in Luanda as a history teacher. Before this he was based in Khartoum, Sudan. In 2016, Oscar and his friend Alfy completed the first ever source-to-sea navigation of Angola's longest river, the Kwanza, a journey of over 1300km. When not teaching, Oscar also writes travel journalism focusing on difficult destinations, such as Somalia, Afghanistan, Liberia and East Timor. Oscar is currently based in Antananarivo, Madagascar.

About Bradt Travel Guides

Founded in 1974, Bradt is now the largest independently owned travel guide publisher in the UK, with more than 200 titles currently in print, over half of which have no direct competition from other guidebook lists. The company has won many awards including gold in the Top Guide Book Series category at the 2019 Wanderlust awards.

www.bradtguides.com

Pioneering guides to exceptional places