

Date: 05.07.2019

Friuli Venezia Giulia is one of the least well-known regions of Italy – but not for long! Let Dana Facaros and Michael Pauls show you around.

- Find out the best place in Trieste to settle down with a coffee – and the 67 ways to order it!
- Grab your helmet and decide which stunning stretch of the Alpe-Adria Trail you'll be cycling along.
- Explore Roman ruins and Renaissance palazzi – Friuli Venezia Giulia is a delight for history buffs.

Dana Facaros had this to say about why she and Michael wanted to write a guide for the region: “Friuli Venezia Giulia truly is Italy’s last undiscovered gem, a small package filled with all the things we love about the country, including generous lashings of Mitteleuropa charm – after years of writing about Italy, having the chance to explore FVG in depth and write about it has been a delight.”

To request a review copy or arrange an interview, Q&A or talk with Dana and Michael, please contact: marketing@bradtguides.com. Competition giveaways and reader discount codes are also available for this title.

Italy: Friuli Venezia Giulia* by Dana Facaros and Michael Pauls

Published by Bradt Travel Guides, 5 July 2019

9781784776299, £15.99

About the authors

Long-time travel authors Dana Facaros and Michael Pauls have been tramping over Italy for decades with notebook in hand, in an unending search for the next double espresso. The two spent years living in a tiny village in the Apennines with their small children, and since then they have written over twenty regional and city guides covering every corner of Italy. Most recently they have written Bradt's Emilia-Romagna and a number of app guides in the Art&Culture series.

About Bradt Travel Guides

Founded in 1974, Bradt is now the largest independently owned travel guide publisher in the UK, with more than 200 titles currently in print, over half of which have no direct competition from other guidebook lists. The company has won many awards including gold in the Top Guide Book Series category at the 2019 Wanderlust awards.

www.bradtguides.com

Pioneering guides to exceptional places