Bradt travel guides

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 05.08.2019

Ghana boasts a wealth of exciting off-the-beaten-track possibilities – let Philip Briggs guide you around this welcoming and hassle-free country.

- Find out about Ghana's cocoa industry – it is now the world's second-largest producer of chocolate!
- Discover a surfer's paradise you never knew existed on the Ghanaian coast.
- Experience Ghana's thriving art scene with a visit to the high profile Chale Wote Street Art festival.

Philip Briggs says of this new edition: "Incredibly, over 20 years have passed since I researched the original Bradt guide to Ghana. Much has changed over the course of that time, but Ghana today, as it was in 1997, is still the ideal destination for the genuinely independent minded travellers at whom Bradt guides are aimed."

About the author
Philip Briggs has been exploring the highways, byways and backwaters of Africa since 1986, when he spent several months backpacking on a shoestring from Nairobi to Cape Town. In 1991, he wrote, for Bradt, South Africa, the first such guidebook to be published internationally after the release of Nelson Mandela. Over the rest of the 1990s, Philip wrote a series of pioneering Bradt travel guides to destinations that were then - and in some cases still are - otherwise practically uncharted by the travel publishing industry. These included the first dedicated guidebook to Ghana.

About Bradt Travel Guides
Founded in 1974, Bradt is now the largest independently owned travel guide publisher in the UK, with more than 200 titles currently in print, over half of which have no direct competition from other guidebook lists. The company has won many awards including gold in the Top Guide Book Series category at the 2019 Wanderlust awards.
