

Date: 29.03.2019

Let local expert Gemma Hall introduce you to the star-filled skies and raw coastal scenery of this distinctive corner of Britain.

- Discover secret waterfalls, beaches and valleys in this region of myths and traditions.
- Lace up your boots and tackle one of 30 trails described by author Gemma, a keen walker.
- Savour the tastes of Northumberland with suggestions for restaurants, pubs and food stores packed full of locally sourced food and drink.

Gemma Hall had this to say about the process of writing a guidebook to Northumberland: "I spent a year researching and writing the first edition of this guide and another seven months on this update, which involved revisiting my favourite spots and picking through the hills and coastline in search of the hidden and unsung corners of Northumberland."

To request a review copy or arrange an interview, Q&A or talk with Gemma, please contact: holly.parsons@bradtguides.com. Competition giveaways and reader discount codes are also available for this title.

Slow Travel: Northumberland* by Gemma Hall
Published by Bradt Travel Guides, 29 March 2019
9781784776084, £13.99

About the author

Gemma Hall grew up in Newcastle and spent many weekends and holidays in Northumberland in the family campervan, visiting relatives in the hills around Rothbury, cycling in Kielder Forest and enjoying long days on the beach at Newton-by-the-Sea. She loves discovering new walking and cycling routes, birdwatching, going for pub lunches and spending time with her young family on Embleton Bay, where she lives for several months of the year.

About Bradt Travel Guides

Founded in 1974, Bradt is now the largest independently owned travel guide publisher in the UK, with more than 200 titles currently in print, over half of which have no direct competition from other guidebook lists. The company has won many awards including gold in the Top Guide Book Series category at the 2019 Wanderlust awards.

www.bradtguides.com

Pioneering guides to exceptional places