

ADVANCE BOOK INFORMATION

Northern Belgium

Flanders with Brussels, Bruges, Ghent and Antwerp

Author: Emma Thomson

October 2019 2nd edition

This new second edition of Bradt's award-winning Northern Belgium: Flanders with Brussels, Bruges, Ghent and Antwerp remains the only standalone guide to this enticing region, home to more Michelin-starred restaurants per head than France and the largest number of comic-strip cartoonists in the world.

KEY SALES POINTS

- The only standalone guide to the area
- Visitor numbers have increased significantly due to WWI celebrations, continuing through 2018
- Award-winning writing: the first edition won the Best Guidebook at the British Guild of Travel Writer Members' Awards
- Includes in-depth coverage of Brussels and more maps of the area than any other guide
- Covers every inch of the region, from the sandy stretch of North Sea coast, through medieval cloth-spinning cities like Bruges and Ghent, to quaint villages.
- Thoroughly revised and updated
- Many new features for this edition, including eyewitness accounts of life under German occupation, specialist contribution on beer and breweries, travel pass information, festivals, and Brussels' walking tours.
- Expert author: Emma Thomson has lived in the country for nearly a decade and writes about Belgium for many international newspapers and magazines

"Emma Thomson's excellent new book celebrates this splendid corner of the Continent."
