CATALOGUE

2023

WELCOME TO OUR 2023 CATALOGUE

Like so many other businesses, Bradt has faced the trickiest couple of years in its history. But we've survived and we're growing again. In fact, more than that, we feel that our response has made us stronger. During the pandemic, we built a new website, launched initiatives such as travel club membership and a contract publishing imprint, designed a fresh new look for our guidebooks, and even completed a management buyout to guarantee that Bradt remains proudly independent.

The focus for 2023 is rebuilding our list of overseas guidebooks, with five brand-new destinations (Tunisia, Gascony & the Pyrenees, Saudi Arabia, Hokkaido and Karakalpakstan) and a whole host of new editions, all fully updated post-Covid. We continue to develop our UK series, with two new Slow Travel guides (Durham and North East Scotland), and three new activity guides (Camping Road Trips: UK, Cycling in Northumbria, and Caving, Canyoning & Coasteering...), and a new guide to South Wales. And there's a handful of new travel literature titles too.

All in all, it's an exciting, unique and colourful list that maintains Bradt's longstanding reputation for taking travel seriously. Challenges remain, but we firmly believe the future is bright.

As ever, happy travels.

TRAVEL WRITING

Our list of travel narratives has gone from strength to strength in recent years and now features some of the finest travel writing available anywhere. In 2021, Tharik Hussain's Minarets in the Mountains was nominated for multiple awards and named as a Book of the Year in the Times Literary Supplement, Washington Post, Prospect and the New Statesman, and last year we published Col. John Blashford-Snell's memoir, From Utmost East to Utmost West to great acclaim.

Elsewhere on the list, Hilary Bradt's A Connemara Journey is the classic account of her ride across Ireland on horseback, while Taverna by the Sea and Wild Abandon are Jennifer Barclay's chronicles of her life on a Greek island. There are also two collections of Brian Jackman's nature writing, alongside his acclaimed memoir, West With the Light.

FOOTPRINT

In 2019 we completed the acquisition of Footprint Travel Guides. After a hiatus due to Covid, we are slowly bringing the best of the Footprint guides into the Bradt list (see Barbados, page 23). But plenty of the existing Footprint titles remain the best and most current guides, including the iconic South American Handbook.

COMPLETE LIST BY SERIES

SLOW TRAVEL

Our award-winning Slow Travel series now consists of 24 regional UK guides. To these we've added two thematic guides which focus on the core ethos of Slow Travel.

SLOW TRAVEL: FAMILY BREAKS

JANE ANDERSON & HOLLY TUPPEN

A hand-picked selection of places to visit, things to see and activities to do across the country, from wildlife and star-gazing on the Isles of Scilly, Guernsey and Sark to foraging and wild swimming in the Cairngorms.

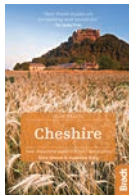

BRITAIN'S SACRED PLACES

MARTIN SYMINGTON

An eclectic guide to the places in Britain that stir the soul, from far-flung islands to ancient chalk hill carvings, hot springs and sites of myth, legend and apparition; and from soaring cathedrals to Buddhist and Hindu temples, shrines to martyred saints, irreligious philosophers and immortal rock stars.

THE TRAVEL PHOTOGRAPHER'S WAY
NORI JEMIL

This ground-breaking practical photography book considers not just how to get better images, but also why and when to take them. It guides you to becoming a more confident and reflective travel photographer, as well as covering all the technical knowhow needed. Taking a journey around the seven continents, each chapter focuses on the main areas of travel imagery, from people and landscapes to architecture and adventure.

JOURNEY BOOKS

Do you have a story to tell?

Journey Books is Bradt's contract-publishing imprint for unpublished and previously published authors alike. If you've a tale you've always dreamed of seeing in print, or if you're an established author wishing to take a more independent route without compromising on production quality and distribution support, this could be the imprint for you. For further details, please visit bradtguides.com/journeybooks.

Here is what some of our authors say about publishing with Journey Books:

"The quality of editing was out of this world: I have been writing for publications for over 40 years and have never come across such forensic insightfulness.

The team are nice people to work with"

Raphael Wilkins, An Educational Journey

"Bradt's staff were unfailingly pleasant and helpful for the duration of the project; I would encourage anyone with travel stories to tell to publish with Journey Books"

Michael Lynch, The Irish Continent

"Bradt/Journey Books is undoubtedly one of the best publishers I have worked with over the last thirty years"

Martin Andrew, Two Men in a Boat

THE BRADT STORY

It all began in 1974 on an Amazon river barge. During an 18-month trip through South America, two adventurous young backpackers – Hilary Bradt and her then husband, George – decided to write about the hiking trails they had discovered through the Andes. Backpacking Along Ancient Ways in Peru and Bolivia included the very first descriptions of the Inca Trail. It was the start of a colourful journey to becoming one of the best-loved travel publishers in the world; you can read the full story on our website: bradtguides.com/ourstory.

Hilary quickly gained a reputation for being a true travel pioneer, and in the 1980s she started to focus on guides to places overlooked by other publishers. The Bradt Guides list became a roll call of guidebook 'firsts'. We published the first guide to Madagascar, followed by Mauritius, Czechoslovakia and Vietnam. The 1990s saw the beginning of our extensive coverage of Africa: Tanzania, Uganda, South Africa and Eritrea. Later, post-conflict guides became a feature: Rwanda, Mozambique, Angola, Sierra Leone, Bosnia and Kosovo.

Today, we are the world's largest independently owned guide book publisher with more than 200 titles in print. However, our ethos remains unchanged. Hilary is still keenly involved, and we still get there first: two-thirds of Bradt guides have no direct competition. But we don't just get there first. Our guides are also known for being more comprehensive than any other series. We avoid templates and tick-lists. Each guide is a one-of-a-kind expression of an expert author's interests, knowledge and enthusiasm for telling it how it really is. And a commitment to wildlife, conservation and respect for local communities has always been at the heart of our books. Bradt Guides was championing sustainable travel before any other guidebook publisher.

RETURNS POLICY

In-print books may be returned with prior authorisation only. Out-of-print books require no authorisation but must be returned within one year of going out of print. An updated list of out-of-print titles still in their returns window can be found on the book trade page of our website. In-print books must be returned in resaleable condition; out-of-print books may be stripped. Credit will not be given for any returns which do not meet these conditions. Please contact us if you have any queries about returns.
