

PARAGUAY

MARGARET HEBBLETHWAITE

Bradt's Paraguay was the first stand-alone guidebook to the country published internationally, and this new fourth edition remains the most detailed guide available. Covering the whole of this little-explored, nature-rich South American nation, and thoroughly updated to reflect recent changes, it complements the best-known sights with off-the-beaten track attractions well beyond the tourist trail.

KEY SALES POINTS

- Still the most detailed guide available
- Thoroughly updated to reflect the most recent changes
- Tourism is increasing: 1.55 million people visited in 2022 (up 171% on 2021)
- Includes tourist-themed routes and a cross-border excursion to Iguazú/Iguaçu Falls
- Written by an expert author who has lived in Paraguay for 25 years, and updated by seasoned travel writers
