2026

WELCOME TO OUR

2026 CATALOGUE

I guess that Bradt is officially ‘middle-aged’ now. But you wouldn’t know it. As we move into our 52nd year, we’ve lost none of the energy of the earliest days of the company. We have, for instance, just launched the Bradt app, with interactive mapping and other features that make it the perfect complement to our print books. Do take a look – you can access the app using the QR codes on page 14.

In 2026, we’ll be publishing the first guide to Afghanistan in two decades. Brand-new too are British Columbia and Singapore, guides to Seville and Malaga, and a host of colourful books on the British Isles like Northern Ireland, Shetland and the Isle of Man. Our weekend-break titles are proving big hits, and we’ve four to add to the list, including Dog-Friendly Weekends Scotland and Photography Weekends Britain. We’re particularly excited about our guide to Islamic heritage: Muslim Britain & Ireland.

But we’ve not forgotten the classic travel guides on which Bradt was built. Step forward Madagascar (coming into a 14th edition), Albania (8th edition), the ever-popular USA by Rail (10th edition) and many others.

It promises to be a bumper year of inspiring guidebooks written by genuine – human! – experts who do their research on the ground in the destinations they love. Thank you for continuing to support their efforts.

Happy travels!

Adrian Phillips, Managing Director

THE BRADT STORY

It all began in 1974 on an Amazon river barge. During an 18-month trip through South America, two adventurous young backpackers – Hilary Bradt and her then husband, George – decided to write about the hiking trails they had discovered through the Andes. Backpacking Along Ancient Ways in Peru and Bolivia included the very first descriptions of the Inca Trail. It was the start of a colourful journey to becoming one of the best-loved travel publishers in the world; you can read the full story on our website: bradtguides.com/ourstory.

Hilary quickly gained a reputation for being a true travel pioneer, and in the 1980s she started to focus on guides to places overlooked by other publishers. The Bradt Guides list became a roll call of guidebook ‘firsts’. We published the first guide to Madagascar, followed by Mauritius, Czechoslovakia and Vietnam. The 1990s saw the beginning of our extensive coverage of Africa: Tanzania, Uganda, South Africa and Eritrea. Later, post-conflict guides became a feature: Rwanda, Mozambique, Angola, Sierra Leone, Bosnia and Kosovo.

Today, we are the world’s largest independently owned guidebook publisher with more than 200 titles in print. However, our ethos remains unchanged. Hilary is still keenly involved, and we still get there first: 70% of Bradt country, regional and city guides have no direct competition. But we don’t just get there first. Our guides are also known for being more comprehensive than any other series. We avoid templates and tick-lists. Each guide is a one-of-a-kind expression of an expert author’s interests, knowledge and enthusiasm for telling it how it really is. And a commitment to wildlife, conservation and respect for local communities has always been at the heart of our books. Bradt Guides was championing sustainable travel before any other guidebook publisher.

TAKING THE RISK (PAPERBACK) MY ADVENTURES IN TRAVEL & PUBLISHING HILARY BRADT

Taking the Risk is Hilary Bradt’s memoir about serendipitous adventures in travel and publishing, looking back on 50 years of escapades, surprises, mishaps, disasters... and success. From her first solo trip aged three, she revisits six decades of hitchhiking, feeding the travel habit by working abroad and starting a successful travel publishing company where knowing nothing proved a surprising asset.

ARCTIC

A GUIDE TO COASTAL WILDLIFE
TONY SOPER

UPDATED BY JAMES LOWEN WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY DAN POWELL

An engagingly written and beautifully illustrated full-colour guide to some of the world's most exciting wildlife. Designed with expedition-cruise passengers in mind, it is an ideal companion both on board and ashore, providing fascinating accounts of the most likely animals and plants to be seen.

5th edition • 9781804693414 • £19.99 • 172pp • 216mm x 135mm • 2 maps

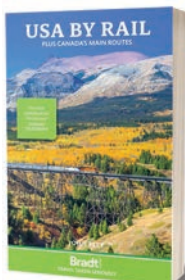

FEBRUARY

AFGHANISTAN

JAMES WILLCOX WITH DANA FACAROS

New from Bradt is Afghanistan, the first guidebook to the country from a mainstream publisher in almost 20 years. Afghanistan is a paradox: a nation so well-known, yet one so infrequently explored that it has been effectively untouched by tourism since being a key stop on the hippie trail four decades ago. Written by an adventure tourism specialist and a prolific guidebook author, this guidebook covers the practicalities for secure and rewarding travel.

1st edition • 9781804692905 • £24.99 • 304pp • 216mm x 135mm • 26 maps

FEBRUARY

USA BY RAIL

PLUS CANADA'S MAIN ROUTES
JOHN PITT

UPDATED BY JILL DUTTON

This remains the pre-eminent source of information for exploring 500 North American destinations via its charming, romantic, eco-friendly and inexpensive train network. There is no better way to enjoy the grandeur of North America's scenery than by the 34 long-distance train journeys featured.

10th edition • 9781804693353 • £19.99 • 392pp • 216mm x 135mm • 37 maps

BARBADOS

UPDATED BY DANIEL AUSTIN & FAEZE SHAD

With a year-round tropical climate and relaxed atmosphere, Barbados is the ideal Caribbean destination for fun in the sun. This new, thoroughly updated fifth edition of Bradt's Barbados – still the only standalone travel guidebook to this Lesser Antilles island with a distinctly British vibe – offers extensive coverage of both famous and lesser-known sights, from the glamorous celebrity-studded Platinum Coast to the wild, untamed remoteness of the Atlantic shoreline.

5th edition • 9781804693612 • £10.99 • 120pp • 178mm x 115mm • 4 maps

APRIL

KAZAKHSTAN

PAUL BRUMMELL

This thoroughly updated fourth edition of Bradt's Kazakhstan remains the only guidebook dedicated solely to the world's ninth-largest country, a thrillingly fresh destination that even well-seasoned travellers will find unfamiliar and exotic. Kazakhstan is both impressively geographically diverse, with mountains, valleys, steppes and the Caspian Sea, and enticingly culturally varied, with 130 ethnic groups offering famous hospitality.

4th edition • 9781804693285 • £22.99 • 400pp • 216mm x 135mm • 30 maps

APRIL

SURINAME

PHILIP BRIGGS

UPDATED BY NANCY CHUANG

This updated 3rd edition remains the most detailed English-language guidebook – and the only standalone guide from a major travel publisher – to this exciting and emerging ecotourism destination. With nine-tenths comprising unspoilt rainforest, Suriname has much to offer wildlife enthusiasts and travellers who delight in adventurous, non-mainstream destinations.

3rd edition • 9781804693506 • £19.99 • 272pp • 216mm x 135mm • 23 maps

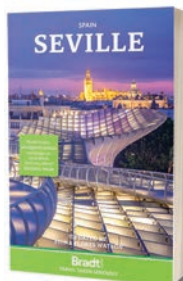

APRIL

SPAIN: SEVILLE

UPDATED BY FIONA FLORES WATSON

The new edition of Bradt's Spain: Seville, thoroughly updated by a long-term resident, celebrates all that this seductive, hedonistic and culturally rich Spanish city has to offer. Visitors find that the stereotypical tropes of Andalucía's larger-than-life capital add to, rather than detract from, its charms: the mesmerising rhythms of flamenco, aromatic orange blossom and the haunting hooded figures of Semana Santa.

4th edition • 9781804693896 • £10.99 • 128pp • 178mm x 115mm • 4 maps

JUNE

SPAIN: MÁLAGA & COSTA DEL SOL

UPDATED BY JAMES TAYLOR

The thoroughly updated fifth edition of Spain: Málaga & Costa del Sol celebrates a popular Spanish region offering a compelling combination of rich cultural heritage and some of Europe's most dependable sunshine (300 days a year!) Stretching along the Mediterranean coast of Andalucía, this diverse region is renowned for beachfront towns, Moorish palaces, whitewashed mountain villages, gastronomy and dramatic inland sierras.

5th edition • 9781804693889 • £10.99 • 136pp • 178mm x 115mm • 4 maps

JUNE

KYRGYZSTAN

LAURENCE MITCHELL

UPDATED BY GILL &amp; ALISTAIR CAMPBELL

Bradt's Kyrgyzstan remains the only English-language guide dedicated solely to this astounding country, described as 'the Switzerland of central Asia' and regarded by many as the most beautiful nation in the world. This new, thoroughly updated fifth edition extends its detailed coverage of all this little-known but easily accessible central Asian country has to offer.

5th edition • 9781804692776 • £22.99 • 336pp • 216mm x 135mm • 22 maps

JUNE

MADAGASCAR

DANIEL AUSTIN &amp; HILARY BRADT

Written by established experts, this thoroughly updated 14th edition of Bradt's Madagascar remains the leading and most detailed guide to this unique African island nation – a place like nowhere else. The world's oldest and fourth-largest island, Madagascar is not only an incredible biodiversity hotspot, with four-fifths of its species occurring exclusively here, but is also culturally and historically fascinating. Madagascar truly is a world apart.

14th edition • 9781804693278 • £19.99 • 472pp • 216mm x 135mm • 57 maps

The baobab trees of Madagascar

TAIWAN

STEVEN CROOK

This new, thoroughly updated fourth edition – written by a Taiwan expert, locally resident since 1991 – is perfect for exploring a fascinating destination transformed from an agriculturally focussed dictatorship into perhaps Asia's freest and most tolerant society, a cultural mash-up with a vibrant folk religion, surprising food scene and wildlife-rich landscapes ranging from beguiling islands to 4,000m high mountains.

4th edition • 9781804693223 • £19.99 • 360pp • 216mm x 135mm • 32 maps

JUNE

OSCAR SCAFIDI

UPDATED BY IAN PACKHAM

The new fourth edition remains the only full-length English-language guide to this increasingly popular and readily accessible southern African destination, which offers a heady combination of wildlife-rich rainforests, world-class surfing, extensive beaches, remote deserts and richly diverse culture. It is written by a former long-term resident and thoroughly updated by an Africa-specialist travel writer.

4th edition • 9781804693599 • £24.99 • 392pp • 216mm x 135mm • 38 maps

JULY

MONTENEGRO

PHILIP BRIGGS, NORM LONGLEY & ANNALISA RELLIE

This is the longest, most detailed guidebook available to one of Europe's hidden corners – an increasingly accessible and enticing country whose rugged beauty includes some of the continent's most exciting coastlines and wildest mountain scenery. This natural beauty is complemented by tiny fishing villages, lively beach resorts and small historic towns. With new flight routes and infrastructure, Montenegro's popularity is rising.

7th edition • 9781804693384 • £18.99 • 280pp • 216mm x 135mm • 29 maps

SEPTEMBER

ALBANIA

GILLIAN GLOYER

This new, extensively revised eighth edition of Bradt's Albania remains the most authoritative and detailed standalone guidebook to what is still a relatively little-known part of Europe. This Balkan country, with a cultural heritage reaching back two and a half millennia, has much to offer almost everyone – from hiking in unspoilt mountains to gawping at Byzantine churches or plentiful birds, from homestays in traditional villages to backpacking around beaches.

8th edition • 9781804693797 • £18.99 • 320pp • 216mm x 135mm • 32 maps

SEPTEMBER

Lake in the Fan Mountains, Tajikistan

SEPTEMBER

4th edition • 9781804693803 • £19.99 • 248pp • 216mm x 135mm • 24 maps

TAJIKISTAN*SOPHIE IBBOTSON

UPDATED BY NANCY CHUANG

This remains the most practical and widest-ranging guide dedicated exclusively to Central Asia's smallest country. Tajikistan offers epic mountain treks, crystal-clear lakes, eating shashlik in the world's biggest teahouse and fabulous wildlife watching, alongside ancient Buddhist sites and Silk Road trading posts. Explorers, nature lovers and wildlife photographers will find much to enjoy.

OCTOBER

7th edition • 9781804692950 • £19.99 • 552pp • 216mm x 135mm • 54 maps

NAMIBIA*CHRIS MCINTYRE

UPDATED BY LIZ BAZIN &amp; CHRIS LEGGATT

Written and updated by Africa specialists, this new, thoroughly updated seventh edition remains the longest, most detailed guidebook to this vast African country, which is twice the size of Germany but has under 3% of its population. Namibia's sweeping landscapes, empty roads and wildlife reserves have long captured the imagination of independent travellers and nature enthusiasts.

NOVEMBER

5th edition • 9781804693872 • £19.99 • 344pp • 216mm x 135mm • 28 maps

BORNEO*SABAH • SARAWAK • BRUNEI*TAMARA THIESSEN

The thoroughly updated Bradt Borneo guidebook remains the essential guide for visiting this tropical island paradise. Focusing on Sabah and Sarawak (both in Malaysia), plus the sultanate of Brunei, it provides the latest practical information for trekking through sultry rainforests, watching orangutans during river journeys, visiting remote tribes and diving coral reefs.

BOSNIA & HERZEGOVINA

TIM CLANCY WITH LARISSA OLENICOFF SINCLAIR

Now in its seventh edition, this remains the sole full-length English-language guide dedicated to this Balkan country – one of Europe's most rewarding yet underexplored destinations. From the sun-drenched karst valleys of Herzegovina to the dense, pine-clad mountains of the north, the country offers a compelling fusion of tradition and modernity, history and adventure.

7th edition • 9781804693827 • £21.99 • 392pp • 216mm x 135mm • 28 maps

NOVEMBER

SVALBARD

SPITSBERGEN • JAN MAYEN • FRANZ JOSEF LAND

UPDATED BY GILLIAN GLOYER

The only detailed, standalone guidebook from a major publisher to this Arctic archipelago. Spitsbergen, Franz Josef Land and Jan Mayen collectively constitute Europe's wildest frontier – a remote destination offering thrilling wildlife watching and adventure sports. This seventh edition reflects important recent changes in the archipelago, from climate-responsible travel innovations to eco-minded tours.

7th edition • 9781804693667 • £24.99 • 280pp • 216mm x 135mm • 12 maps

NOVEMBER

CANADA: BRITISH COLUMBIA

WITH BANFF & JASPER NATIONAL PARKS

BRENDAN SAINSBURY

The new Bradt Canada: British Columbia guidebook is a detailed standalone guide to this exhilarating province. Twenty-three times the size of Switzerland but with only two-thirds the population, British Columbia excels for all manner of outdoor activities, characterful towns and First Nations culture – all in stunning mountainous landscapes that include seven national parks.

1st edition • 9781804693483 • £18.99 • 360pp • 216mm x 135mm • 27 maps

DECEMBER

The landscapes of British Columbia

DECEMBER

CAMEROON
BEN WEST
 UPDATED BY IAN PACKHAM

The long-awaited new edition of the only standalone English-language guidebook to this diverse West African country from a mainstream publisher. Nineteen national parks span landscapes ranging from Mount Cameroon (West Africa's highest peak) and rainforests (perfect for lowland gorilla- and chimpanzee-tracking) to the lion- and cheetah-harboured savannah.

4th edition • 9781841629285 • £22.99 • 248pp • 216mm x 135mm • 26 maps

DECEMBER

GABON
SEAN CONNOLLY
 UPDATED BY CARLIJN VAN ESCH

The thoroughly updated third edition of Bradt's Gabon remains the only standalone English-language guidebook to what is considered by many to be 'Africa's last Eden', thanks to its sparse population in one of the world's most densely forested countries. In this ecotourist's paradise, adventurous visitors come face-to-face with nature in its rawest, wildest form.

3rd edition • 9781804693728 • £22.99 • 256pp • 216mm x 135mm • 36 maps

DECEMBER

SINGAPORE
DANIEL ROBINSON

New from Bradt is Singapore, written by Daniel Robinson, a southeast Asia specialist and former Singapore resident who has written scores of travel guidebooks since 1988. Robinson shares his local expertise and insights to escort visitors, locals and expat residents alike off the beaten track and get the very most out of this unique island-state. An historic, cultural and culinary microcosm of south, southeast and east Asia, this is a destination that rewards those who give it time.

1st edition • 9781804692974 • £16.99 • 248pp • 216mm x 135mm • 28 maps

DECEMBER

SLOVAKIA
LUCY MALLOWS, CELIA & ROB DILLOW

The updated Bradt Slovakia guidebook, now in its second edition, remains the only standalone English-language guidebook from a mainstream publisher to thoroughly explore this European country, which is unspoiled by mass tourism. Lying at the geographical centre of Europe, Slovakia is packed with architectural gems, stunning mountains and budget-friendly outdoor activities including impressive skiing, hiking and wildlife-watching opportunities.

2nd edition • 9781804693810 • £19.99 • 328pp • 216mm x 135mm • 34 maps

THIS IS NOT MY LAND

30 YEARS ON A SMALL COTSWOLDS FARM

CAROLINE MILLS

This Is Not My Land is an enchanting narrative about life on an English farm. In 1995, Caroline Mills bought 65 acres in the north Cotswolds – land that has had just four owners, including King Henry VIII, in 500 years. Walking repeatedly through her five meadows and woodland, Mills witnesses how the farm and surrounding countryside evolve across three decades.

RETURNS POLICY

In-print books may be returned with prior authorisation only. Out-of-print books require no authorisation but must be returned within one year of going out of print. An updated list of out-of-print titles still in their returns window can be found on the book trade page of our website. In-print books must be returned in resaleable condition; out-of-print books may be stripped. Credit will not be given for any returns which do not meet these conditions. Please contact us if you have any queries about returns.
