

SURINAME

Philip Briggs

This thoroughly updated third edition of Bradt's Suriname remains the most detailed English-language guidebook - and the only standalone guide from a major travel publisher - to this exciting, emerging and largely unspoiled ecotourism destination. With an unrivalled nine-tenths of the thinly populated country comprising unspoilt rainforest, Suriname has much to offer wildlife enthusiasts, adventurous travellers and anyone who delights in non-mainstream destinations.

KEY SALES POINTS

- Thrilling destination for wildlife-rich rainforest adventures
- Written by prolific guidebook author Philip Briggs
- Covers all accessible parks and reserves
- New flight connections from North America mean Suriname is ever more accessible
- Tourism doubled 2009–18
- In 2023, visas were abolished for citizens of all but 21 countries
- Published shortly after the 50th anniversary of Suriname's independence
