

ALBANIA

Gillian Gloyer

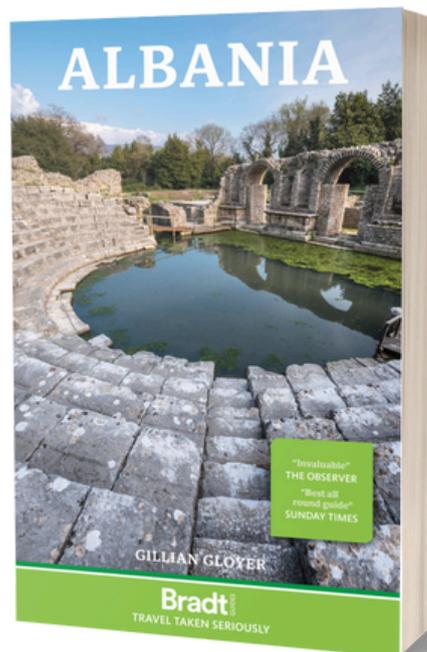

This new, extensively revised eighth edition of Bradt's Albania remains the most authoritative and detailed standalone guidebook to a relatively little-known part of Europe. This Balkan country has much to offer almost everyone – from hiking in mountains to gawping at Byzantine churches, from homestays in traditional villages to backpacking around beaches.

KEY SALES POINTS

- Fully revised 8th edition of the original and still the most detailed guide to Europe's hottest destination
- Practical advice for independent travellers from a former resident who still spends several months a year in Albania
- Visitors from western Europe more than doubled from 2018–23, partly due to ever-increasing air connectivity
- One of Europe's few places where you can still immerse yourself in traditional rural lifestyles
