

BOSNIA & HERZEGOVINA

Tim Clancy with Larissa Olenicoff Sinclair

The updated Bradt Bosnia & Herzegovina guidebook, now in its seventh edition, remains the sole full-length English-language guide dedicated to this Balkan country – one of Europe’s most rewarding yet underexplored destinations. From the sun-drenched karst valleys of Herzegovina to the dense, pine-clad mountains of the north, the country offers a compelling fusion of tradition and modernity, history and adventure.

KEY SALES POINTS

- Still the only full-length English-language guide
- Offers a rare combination of history, culture and adventure at exceptional value
- Visitor numbers up 15% on pre-pandemic levels, yet remains largely undiscovered by mainstream tourism – visit before the secret gets out!
- New chapter on western Bosnia; expanded coverage of Via Dinarica hiking route and the new Trans Dinarica cross-border cycling trail
