

CANADA: BRITISH COLUMBIA

WITH BANFF & JASPER NATIONAL PARKS

Brendan Sainsbury

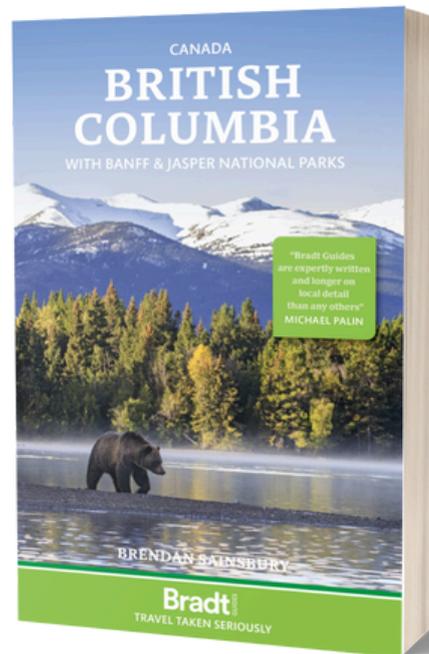

The new Bradt Canada: British Columbia guidebook is a detailed standalone guide to the entirety of this exhilarating province. Twenty-three times the size of Switzerland but with only two-thirds the population, British Columbia excels for all manner of outdoor activities, characterful towns and First Nations culture amid stunning mountainous landscapes that include more national parks (seven, with another in the works) than any province.

KEY SALES POINTS

- A stunning destination, offering world-class skiing, hiking, surfing and wildlife watching opportunities
- The most detailed guidebook to the whole of British Columbia, featuring less well-known locations as well as popular attractions
- Written by vastly experienced travel writer Brendan Sainsbury, who has contributed to 70+ guidebooks and has lived in British Columbia since 2004
