

MONTENEGRO

Norm Longley, Annalisa Rellie, Philip Briggs

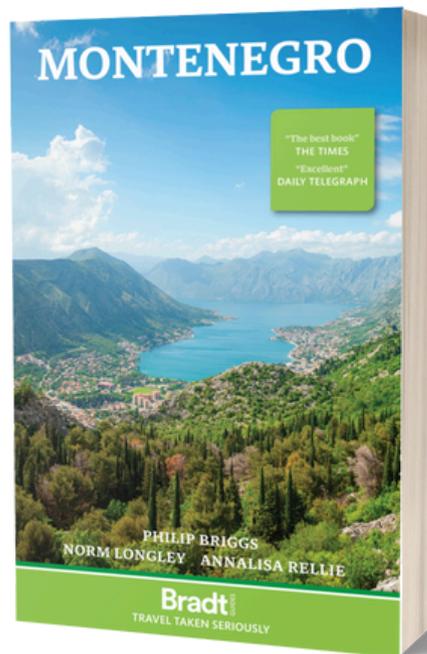

This new, seventh edition of Bradt's Montenegro is the longest and most detailed guidebook available to one of Europe's hidden corners - an increasingly accessible country whose stark, rugged beauty includes some of the continent's most exciting coastlines and wildest mountain scenery, complemented by tiny fishing villages, lively beach resorts and small, historic towns, all in an area smaller than Yorkshire.

KEY SALES POINTS

- The most detailed guide available, thoroughly updated by Philip Briggs, one of the world's most experienced and prolific guidebook writers
- Increasingly popular destination for UK travellers, who increased 25% from 2023-24
- Published during the 20th anniversary of Montenegro's independence from Serbia
- Interest in Montenegro is likely to rise as it joins the European Union (expected 2028).
