

TAJIKISTAN

Sophie Ibbotson

This new, thoroughly updated fourth edition of Bradt's Tajikistan remains the most practical and widest-ranging guide dedicated exclusively to Central Asia's smallest country. Tajikistan offers travellers unforgettable experiences: epic mountain trekking routes, crystal-clear lakes, the world's biggest teahouse and fabulous wildlife watching (snow leopards!), alongside ancient Buddhist sites, Silk Road trading posts and medieval shrines.

KEY SALES POINTS

- The most practical and widest-ranging guidebook dedicated exclusively to Tajikistan
- Tajikistan received 1.25 million tourists in 2023 (a swift rebound to pre-pandemic levels)
- Visiting is increasingly straightforward: government grants visa-free access for 62 countries and has committed to meeting international standards of infrastructure by 2027
- Written by a Central Asian expert author who chairs the Royal Society for Asian Affairs
