Let Middle East expert Maria Oleynik show you around Iran – the jewel of Central Asia

- Explore Iran's holy Muslim, Christian, Zoroastrian and Jewish shrines and be enthralled by the country's cultural and historical diversity.
- Discover the country's stunning natural beauty in the mountain villages of Iranian Kurdistan and the lush forests of Gilan province.
- Simply relax by the crystal blue waters of the Persian Gulf.

The author passionately explains why people should visit: 'Iran is one of those countries where issues concerning religion and the modern world confront you at all turns and compel you to consider your own stance. It is impossible to return from even a short break and not feel that, while seeing magnificent historic architecture and evidence of ancient civilisations, you have also been witnessing history in the making.'
